RED RICE'S — SATURDAY, MAY 30. Some wonderful bargains in new goods came to Red Rice's this week. This has got to be about what people say: If there is anythink you want, just look for it at Red Rice's, because Red Rice is fast approaching the goal of his ambition and that is to keep everything. Then everyone knows that the prices are always right at Red Rice's Red Rice's folks are not what the world calls smart, but have sufficient ability to be homestand find it very good policy. You are especially invited to visit RED RICE'S, 143 and 145 S. Main st., Los Angelea. [For purposes of comparison the swern statement below gives, first, the circulation of The Times on the 5th day of August, 1890— NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS-THE the day of the strike by compositors in this office—followed by the circulation figures at various periods since that date, showing the NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS—THE

WILL BE A BARONESS A Romantic Story Comes

from Berlin.

Her Father a Dissipated Scion of Noble German Family.

The German Heirs Are Relatives o the Late Von Moltke and Will Deal Generously with the Claimant.

By Telegraph to The Times.
BERLIN, May 29.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Miss Ida Green of San Francisco is a claimant to the title and estate of Baroness von Barnekow. Mr. Edwards, the United States consul-general, and a number of lawyers interested in the case, believe her claim legal, and that the girl's membership of one of the proudest families of Germany is established. Years ago Baron Kjel von Barnekow, an officer of the German army, after a career of dissipation, fled to America, where, after numerous vicissitudes, he became a hotel runner in San Francisco, traveling under the alias of "Fred Green." While in this capacity he became acquainted with a girl named Galligan. The pair lived together, though not legally married, but after the birth of a daughter the baron consented to marriage, and at the same time, under the laws of California, made his daughter, though born out of wedlock, his legal issue. The baron soon returned to his dissipated ways, neglected his family, and finally deserted them. After waiting a number of years the wife applied for a divorce, which was granted in 1888.

In the meantime Baron Von Barnekow had returned to Germany and married again without undergoing the formality of a divorce. He dued in 1887, the year before his Calt-formia wite got her divorce. His secfornia wite got her divorce. His second marriage was naturally illegal. Mrs. Green obtained her divorce, never knowing that her quendam husband was dead, and later on married a sailor named Robinson. Her daughter Ida Green, lived with her and her step father in a poor quarter of San Francisco. After Baron von Barnekow's death, his sister Countess Von Moltke, wife of a major in the army, a near relative of the late field marshal, having av inkling of the truth, searched for the missing heiress. There were some large estates, heavily truth, searched for the missing heiress. There were some large estates, heavily incumbered however, and with rare nobility of feeling the countess tried to do justice to her brother's widow and child. She applied to Consul-General Edwards, who wrote to Chief of Police Crowley of San Francisco. Chief Crowley found Ida and reported accordingly, and the necessary affidavits proving the marriage, the identity of Baron von Barnekow with "Fred Green," the legalization of Ida as his legitimate child, and other necessary papers, were sent to Berlin.

cessary papers, were sent to Berlin. Consul-General Edwards admitted the story as substantially correct and placed the matter in the hands of one of the most eminent lawyers of Berlin. One important question in-volved is, should the German or Califormis law regarding the legitimacy of the child prevail. The father died in Germany, and it will take some trouble to make Ida the legitimate Baroness von Barnekow and the legal That this can be accomplished, however, there is little doubt.

THE HEBREW PROBLEM

Proposed Colonization of Jewish Refugees in Palestine. LONDON, May 29.-In response to a letter from a member of Parliament asking him to join in claiming for the Jews in Russia the rights accorded to Mohammedan subjects of the Czar, Gladstone said his personal action would have no weight. He thought the pressure of the opinion of the civilized world, based upon ascertained facts, would be the best mode of proceeding. Gladstone expressed the ceeding. Gladstone expressed the hope that the Sultan of Turkey would support the scheme for the settlement of Jews in Palestine.

Gladstone's suggestions toward remedying the persecution of Russian Jews strongly disappoint the commu-nity. His letter on the subject ignores the fact that the Russo-Jewish committee has already taken the exact course he suggested. At the meeting of zionists the speakers declared that facts were nown which justified the action of the European governments; that the crisis was reached and time was precious.

Lord Rothschild has presented a memorial to Lord Salisbury asking the British government to initiate concerted action by the powers to assist the wholesale emigration of Jews to Palestine. Rothschild, Goldsmid and all the leading Jews of England concur in the opinion that the settlement of the Jews in Palestine is the best plan. of the Jews in l'alestine is the best plan.
They act to obtain European recognition of a great wave of emigration as necessary to the solution of the Jewish problem. Baron Hirsch, though having schemes of his own supports England's plans to operate through

By Telegraph to The Times. IQUIQUE (Chile,) May 29.-[By Cable and Associated Press.] The recognition by Bolivia of the Iquique Junta as belligerents was formally proclaimed today. A correspondent here of a New York paper is responsible for the statement that Bolivia is prepared to extend armed assistance to the Congressional party on condition of Chile cancelling the Bolivian debt. THREATEN TO BOMBARD VALPARAISO Paris, May 29 .- Dispatches received enthusiastic greetings from dense crowds that lined the route. The discovery of four large boxes of dynamite in the customs department of the French exhibition last Sunday was in part the reason for the delay of the royal party in coming.

here from Chile state that the made gents, contrary to their promises, now threaten to bombard Valparaiso. In view of these threats the defenses of that city are being hurriedly strengthened. It is believed foreign powers will intervene should the insurgents can their threat. carry out their threat.

UNCLE SAM MAY INTERFERE. WASHINGTON, May 29.-The State Department has not been officially informed of any intention on the part of the Chilean insurgents to bombard Valparaiso, as reported from Paris. There is a disposition on the part of this Government, so far as can be learned, to "intervene" in the Chilean contest. The meaning of this term in diplomatic ianguage is siding with one faction or the other. If the insurgents should attempt to bombard the city of Valparaiso, it is more than probable that the foreign ministers would enter an energetic protest, based on the fact that the foreign interests of that city are larger than the native Chilean interests. In view of this large interest, it may be that the protest, if disregarded, may be enforced by foreign fleets in Chilean waters, but their action would go no further than necessary to pre tect the lives and property of foreign heard of his father's crimes the old man requested him to hear the confession. Justice Henry thought he had a crank to deal with at first, and to humor him took him into the back room and told him to proceed. Sewald then went on to tell a remarkable story of how he had murdered two wives in the East. Eleven years ago, he said, he lived in Ohio with his wife Catharine and four children. Prior to that it had been a happy household, but at this time the wife began to drink and t became impossible to live longer with her. He took two of his children and fled to Minnesota; locating at a place called Anoka. A few months later the wife followed him and the unhappy life was resumed. Finally, Sewald says, he became so exasperated at her drunkenness and scolding that he concluded to put an end to it. He went to town, purchased arsenic and put it in her whisky. She died in two days and he buried her without causing suspicion.

Three years later he moved with his Three years later he moved with his family to Wayne, Neb., and after being there some time married again. His second matrimonial venture, according to his story, was worse than the first, and he was very unhappy again. He succeeded so well the first time in ridding himself of a wife that he tried it again, and this time smothered his second wife with bed-lother. This time however, the Correlation of the second wife with bed-lother. smothered his second wife with Ded-clothes. This time, however, the Cor-oner of Wayne county investigated, but could get no evidence and Sewald es-caped. He came to California then and took up his residence near here. Justice Henry believes now that Sewald tells the truth. Others, who have known him during his residence.

ere, say he is not insane, but has been nere, say he is not insane, but has been morose over some great trouble weighing on him. The matter was reported to Sheriff Stanley. That official took Sewald into custody at the latter's request until the matter is investigated.

LONDON, May 29.-Richard Somerset Lepoer French, fourth Earl of Clancarty, died suddenly today.

Earl Clancarty died leaving the feud with Viscount Dunlo only partially healed. The attitude of the family toward the actress continues hostile. Viscount Dunlo says the late earl tesired to be buried in England, and he will not be buried in the family vault at Garbally, Ballinsloe, Ireland, unless the will gives special instruc-tions. The retirement of Lady Dunlo from the stage is a matter of course.

John Macdonald's Condition Declared Hopeless. OTTAWA (Ont.,) May 29.—[By the Associated Press.] Sir John Macdonaid's physician issued a bulietin tonight saying that the aged Premier had a relapse and his condition was At 10:30 Dr. Powell issued a bulletin saying: "Sir John's speech is gone and the hemorrhage has extended to the brain. His condition is quite hope less.

When a minister dies, the ministry, according to English parliamentary practice, is dissolved. Sir John Thompson, in all likelihood, would be called upon to form a ministry in the event of Macdonald's death. Sir John has suffered a stroke of paralysis. He is conscious, but unable to speak or move and cannot live. As soon as it became known Parliament adjourned. Chouls at Barnum's Grave.

ARRIVAL OF MR. TRUMBULL

The Defense Outlines Its Case—Wha It is Expected to Prove-Argudavits Filed.

Richard L. Trumbull, who, with G. A. Burt and Capt. T. O'Farrell of the schooner Robert and Minnie, was indicted by the Federal grand jury on the charge of violating the neutrality laws, arrived in this city from San Francisco at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, accompanied by his attorney, Charles Page, Esq., the well-known ad-

Haif an hour after his arrival here Mr.

Trumbull presented himself before Judge

Ross in the United States District Court for arraignment, with his counsel, Messrs. G. J. Denis and Charles Page, the Government being represented by United States District Attorney Cole and Alexander Camp-The reading of the indictment having his counsel pressive and filed a general demurrer to the indictment without argument, which was promptly overruled by the court. The defendant then stated his true name and entered his plea of not guilty to the charges preferred against him.

The question as to the date upon which the case should be set for trial then arose, and Mr. Page announced that he would be compelled to return to San Francisco on the 15th day of June, and suggested the 11th as a suitable date.

Judge Campbell said that he was afraid the Government would not be able to get, its witnesses here within fourteen days, as some of them were in New York, and it would be aimost an impossibility to obtain a return of the subpœuas in that time. He would exdeavor to do so, but if he found that he could not, he would then come in and ask for a delay.

Mr. Denis objected to this and stated that if counsei for the prosecution would give the names of the New York witnesses and say what he expected to prove by them, the defense would in all probability save delay by admitting that they would testify to such facts.

Judge Campbell, however, was not dis-TO LET - 522 S. SPRING, 2 FUR-nished front rooms; board in private family, by admitting that they would testify to such facts.

Judge Campbell, however, was not disposed to show his hand at so early a stage in the game, and replied to that effect.

Mr. Denis said that with all due respect to counsel on the other side, he could not imagine any reason for this refusal to disclose the names of these New York witnesses. The issuance of subponas was a public matter, and the defense certainly had the right to learn who they were for, when they were placed in the hands of the Marshal for service. If there was any danger of a continuance, the defendants would rather the case went over for some time, and not be set for trial on June 11.

Judge Ross remarked that both sides were, of course, entitled to a reasonable length of time in which to obtain their witnesses.

Be it resolved by the Board of Trustees of the city of Monrovia in the county of Los Angeles, State of California, that in the opinion of said board, Mr. Walter S. Maxwell, who has been named for the position of chief of the bureau of horticulture of the World's Fair, is unit for that position by reason of a total lack of knowledge and experience in horticultural matters, and of the executive ability required to fill it, and that his confirmation would be detrimental to the horticultural interests of this county and State, and of the country at large.

Resolved, further, that the said board do can earnestly recommend for the position of chief of the bureau of horticulture the Hon. J. de Barth Shorb of Los Angeles county, Cal., as a gentleman eminently fitted for that position by high character and ability, and by thorough knowledge and long and varied experience in horticulture.

She was subsequently supplied with the armament mentioned in the indictment, but as she went out her guns were remounted and she became as before a vessel of war. Judge Campbell then referred to the witnesses named in the affidavit, and stated that he recognized among them the names of the officers of the Itata and others in the rebel army. It was not known where the yessel was.

"Chasing the Charleston," suggested Mr. Page.

"I hope she comes up with her. then," retoried Judge Campbeil, "for she'il meet with a warm reception."

Continuing the speaker dweit upon the fact that seven witnesses for the Government were confined in jail in default of bonds, and their liberty was of much more importance than the convenience of counsel. He submitted that the affidavit was evasive, and full of glittering generalities, but did not particularize anything, and that most of the witnesses named were fugitives from justice today for perpetrating a gross outrage on this country.

not particularize anything, and that most of the witnesses named were fugitives from justice today for perpetrating a gross outrage on this country.

Mr. Denis asked the prosecuting attorney before he resumed his seat under what authority the Itata was seized, to which Judge Campbell replied that the Marshal seized her under directions from the proper authorities at Washington.

The Court interrupted further debate on this question by calling the attention of counsel to the fact that this was not settling a date for the trial of the case.

Charles Page, Esq., then rose in support of the affidavit, and in a brilliant speech of twenty minutes' duration outlined the defense. He said that there were virtually only three counts in the indictment. The first was for fitting out and arming a certain vessel for the purpose of cruising against the Republic of Chile. The only persons who knew anything about the matter here were the defendants themselves, but they were not compelled to rely upon their own evidence aione. It would be too much to ask, when charged with such hemous crimes against the majesty of the laws of the United States as were these defendants. They must be allowed to call such witnesses as were within their reach, and as had been set forth in the affidavit; they had no means of obtaining certain testimony except through such witnesses as were named therein. For instance, no one could know better for what purpose the Itata was utilized or for whom her cargo was destined, then the officers ir charge of her. Then again the prosecution depended to a great extent upon the statements of two boys, picked up by a private detective. The defendants proposed to offset their testimony wester for what purpose the Itata was utilized or for whom her cargo was destined, then the officers ir charge of her. Then again the prosecution depended to a great extent upon the statements of two boys, picked up by a private detective. The defendants proposed to offset their testimony to the latta as a vessel of war, and it would to be pushed to trial. The Government was asking for an exceptional privilege in having the case taken up ahead of the usual time; and it was now proposed to try the defendants ten days after the indictments had been filed, which was as quickly as the proprieties would allow of. He could not see why the defendants should be forced to go to trial without their testimony.

Judge Campbell demurred, saving that they were not entitled to any time at all, their witnesses being fugitives from justice.

Judge Ross suggested that counsel for the prosecution was hinting that the defendants were responsible for the action of the Itata, and called their attention to the fact that no such allegation was contained in the indictment. He did not feel justified in forcing the defendants to go to trial at so early a day as counsel for the Government desired, but would gladly take it up on any date counsel could agree upon. He would pass the matter over until Monday morning, if counsel would confer in the meanwhile. This being agreed upon, it was so ordered, and court then adjourned until 11 o'clock on Monday morning.

Councilman Summerland then moved that the City Attorney be instructed to draw up the necessary ordinance for the abandon-ment of proceedings.

The City Attorney suggested that the Mayor be invited to give his views, as it would greatly simplify matters if he acquiesced in the agreement.

A messenger was then sent to the Mayor's office, but His Honor could not be found, and Counciliman Summerland's motion passed by a unanimous vote, when a recess was taken until 2:30 o'clock, to give the attorney time to draw up the ordinance.

At 2:40 o'clock the Council was again called to order, when Mayor Hazard also put in an appearance.

The ordinance repealing the ordinances for the opening and extension of Los Angeles street and abandoning all proceedings in the matter was read.

A motion by Councilman Summerland was also read, authorizing the Mayor to draw a demand on the treasury for $500, that being the amount which the city had agreed to pay, and with the amount subscribed by the property owners, to close up the whole business.

Mayor Hazard briefly stated that he saw no reason why he should not cooperate with the property-owners, when they showed their willinguess to do their share by paying $1500 out of their own pockets.

The ordinance then passed by a unanimerland's motion, and the commissioners were instructed to return all assessments that had been paid; also all deeds which had been given for property for street purposes.

On motion, the Street Superintendent was instructed to stop all proceedings in the matter of Los Angeles street, and the Council adjourned, the $1500 certified check being turned over to the Mayor.

THE TAYLOR FAMILY.

They Will Probably Leave for the North Sunday. The destitute Taylor family, mention of whom was made in The Times yesterday morning, are still at the police station. Yes-terday morning several gentlemen called at the station and left $6 in cash to be used for their benefit. Jake Aull, proprietor of the Hollenbeck restaurant, is boarding the en-Hollenbeck restaurant, is boarding the entire family during their stay, and after calling on Taylor yesterday, sent him a suit of clothes. Mrs. Ducommun and several other ladies also called, and brought clothing for the children. The steamship company will take Taylor and his family to San Francisco for $18. This amount the supervisors will pay, and if a small amount in addition can be raised, the unfortunates can be provided for until they reach their destination. The steamer leaves Sunday morning. Any one desiring to contribute can either leave the money at the police station, or this office, and it will reach the Taylors.

DR. ELLIS'S DEBTS.

Again Discussed by the Tabernacle Congregation.

A MONKEY AND PARROT TIME

After a Fierce Debate, the Deposed Pastor Is Knocked Out, at Least for the Time Being.

Rev. Dr. Ellis as a "disturbing element" is a success/ He has been repudiated by his congregation, but is still able to cause a great deal of trouble and annoyance, as will be seen by the following decidedly interest-ing account of a church meeting Wednesday night, in the San Francisco Chronicie

A MONKEY AND PARROT TIME. The doctrine of brotherly love was buried so deep by the congregation of the Central Presbyterian Tabernacie last night, that its resurrection in that body is a matter of grave doubt. For the third time the congregation met to third time the congregation met to wrestle with the hydra-headed question of Dr. Elifa's industrial Dr. Elils's indebtedness to the church. The previous meetings were a jumble of state-ments and figures, papers and documents that kept accumulating until the congrega-tion was hopelessly lost in a maze of con tradictions. Dr. Ellis made a statement and Hugh Frazer, the treasurer, made another at the first meeting. At the and flugh Frazer, the treasurer, made another at the first meeting. At the next meeting Dr. Ellis made a new statement, and at a second session of the same meeting he made a third one. In the cail of the congregation to Dr. Ellis it was stipulated that he should receive $3000 a year as salary, but the church should only p y $2000 of that sum, the remaining $1000 to be paid by the board of home missions of the Presbyterian Church, the congregation to ask the payment of this sum. Dr. Ellis, in his last Statement, brought the church out in his debt instead of his owing the church $600, and expisined that the church, having fallied to ask the board of home missions for the $1000, became responsible for its payment. The church retorted that the cail, in the first place, was not binding, because Dr. Ellis had never been installed as pastor of the church, and, secondly, even if it was, the congregation was not liable for the $1000 because it had asked the board of home missions for it.

it was, the congregation was not liable for the $1000 because it had asked the board of home missions for it.

This was the state of affairs when it was agreed to call in the local board of home missions to arbitrate matters. That body found that if it declared the church not liable for the $1000, Dr. Ellis would owe it some $600, but if was liable for the same then the church owed Dr. Ellis $196. It decided that the church did not owe Dr. Ellis applying, but suggested that, for the sake of harmony, the church should allow him half of the amount which he claimed, thus leaving Dr. Ellis $350 in debt. The elders and trustees accepted this basis of settlement, but the session refused it, claiming Dr. Ellis should be paid the $1000, and hence there was a majority and a minority report to be considered last night and one or the other adopted.

To say that the historic "time" which the monkey and the pairot had was rivaled last night light gives only a feeble idea of the proceedings.

Henry Huffschmidt was selected as mod

Heury Huff-chmidt was selected as moderator, the meeting was opened with prayer, the minutes of preceding meetings were read and adopted, the majority and minority reports of the trustees were read, and then, upon a motion to adopt the former, and a second motion to substitute the minority report, the fun began. The meeting opened like a summer zephyr blowing through a garden of roses. It closed like a Kansaacyclone when it picks up a town and distributes it over the adjoining States. Dr. Elius started the row, when, in renly

Dr. Elins started the row, when, in realy to Treasurer Frazer as to the legality of the call, he salida.

"Nof a trustee, not an elder whose name is signed to that call will date to show his face in commercial circles if he denies the legality of that call as a contract."

"Dr. Ellis," retorted Treasurer Frazer, "has made us a nice little speech, but he doesn't state facts," and then he went for the reverend gentleman without gloves. As

Dr. Eilis replied to the imputation that he had iled, and then William Beatty, who was Dr. Eilis attorney in his trial before the presbytery, took the floor. He became vehement in the course of his remarks, and said:

"Well, it convicted you," replied Beatty. The moderator then ruled against Dr. Ellis and Beatty went on arraigoing him. He said Dr. Ellis knew he owed the church $600, and that he knew the church had lived up to its contract.

Dr. Ellis retorted by saying the congregation had never asked the board of home missions to pay the $1000.

"It is not; not a word of it," retorted Dr.

Elder Overstreet said if there had been a little more Christianity, and not so much creed in dealing with Dr. Ellis it would have been better. Mr. Beatty retorted by saying if that had been the rule "Ellis wouldn't have been in it at all."

By this time the sharpshooting and crossfring were lively all over the room, and Mr. Grubb, one of the elders who brought in the minority report, took the floor, He declared that the church had no right to bring charges against Dr. Ellis in the presbytery in the first place.

Dr. Ellis's friends applauded and some one pounded on the floor with a cane or an umbrella.

"Order!" shouted the moderator.

"Question!" "Question!" came from all over the house.

"Mr. Moderator!" "Mr. Moderator!"

"Question!" "Question!" came from all over the house, "Mr. Moderator!" "Mr. Moderator!" shricked a dozen church members who and, whirling around, said loudly and threateningly:

"What's that remark?"

A hush fell on the audience, as Dr. Ellis had warned them earlier in the evening that "If blows were given parties must expect to receive blows in return," and intimated that there were men present whose lives were not staluless, and he knew it.

"What was that remark?" repeated Dr. Ellis.

Eilis. "Question!" shouted the "Dr. Ellis has the floor," said the moder ator.

"Only one point," said Dr. Ellis, and then he warned the congregation against the report of the local board of home missions.
"That board came here all primed and filled with prejudice," said Elder Grubb, "that's why we brought in a minority report."

"that's why we brought in a minority report."

A dozen members were ready to defend the local board of missions, but the moderator, after snying to Elder Grubb, "You've no right to so speak; its untrue," and the elder retorting, "it is true." put the question upon the adoption of the minority report. It was defeated by a vote of 15 to 16.

The majority report was then adopted by a vote of 47 to 14, and it was thus decided that Dr. Ellis owes the clurch over $300.

When those voting against the majority report had seated themselves, Dr. Ellis's youthful admirer cried out:
"Stand up again; I want Dr. Ellis to know who his friends are."

It was unwise, for the fourteen looked lonely in the midst of the congregation seated.

The amouncement of the vote was received with applause, and Elder Grubb made some remark that was lost to posterity in the noise.

THE MILLER MURDER.

mportant Evidence Brought Out by the Prosecution-Testimony of Detective Johnson and the Physicians.

The preliminary examination of George H. Miles, charged with killing his partner in the Carlton saloon, in the card-room, on the night of the 16th inst., was continued

The first witness called for the prosecu tion was George Gerkins, the day bar-ten-der. Witness stated that he has known Miller for two years and the defendant. Miles about a year. On the day of the killing he was relieved by Miles at 6 o'clock in the evening, as was the rule. Miller had been about the saloon most of the day and was pretty drunk. Part of the time he was with a man named Nelson. In the afternoon Miller went driving with Ernest McKenzle and Nelson went back into the saloon to play billiards, but witness did not know when he left the saloon. On being relieved by Miles witness went to the O. K. stables to see if Mil'er had returned from his drive. While there Miller returned and witness went out to see his brother on Washington street. About 9 o'clock in the evening he returned to the saloon and asked Miles if Miller had gone home. Miles replied that he had put Miller's money in the safe and that Miller was in the card-room asleep. This is the room that Miller was in the habit of sieeping off his drunks in. Witness never knew Miller to put his money in the safe before. When witness returned to the saloon at 9 o'clock he remained about an hour. when he left the saloon. On being relieved the saloon at 9 o'clock he remained about an hour.

Police Detective Johnson took the stand and told how he found the hammer that the deed is supposed to have been committed with. Johnson said he made a thorough examination of the premises and found the hammer in a cupboard behind the bar, and at the end nearest the room where Miller's body was found. The hammer was hid behind some empty cigar boxes, and the handle was damp when he took it out. He noticed what he believed to be bood stains on both the hammer and the handle. He was present at the morgue in Orr & Sutch's undertaking rooms when the face of the hammer was fitted in the wound on Miller's head by some medical gentiemen, and it seemed to fit in the hole in the skull exactly.

WE are now at length enjoying perfect Southern California weather, such as can be equalled nowhere else in the world. THE Examiner suggests that the State and district fairs should give prizes for good roads. It says: A well-built road costs more money than a dirt road, but it has to be built only once, and it does not cost much to keep in order, and it saves many times its cost in horse-flesh and wagons. The fairs have been dealt with in the most liberal manner by the late Legislature and are amply sup plied with funds. If they spend some or the purpose to teach the people liber to set deed noney to teach the people flow to get good oads they will do more for the State that hey could do by teaching every farme they could do by teaching every farmer to breed every horse to beat Salvator's time. If the managers of the fairs should find a horse to lower Salvator's time by haif a second they would think all the prize money well spent. But by getting good roads the average speed of travel over the State would be increased by one-half, and inmany cases double. That is surely well worth striving for.

"MY MOTHER."

The Wise Sayings of Great Men's Mothers.

WORDS THAT MADE HEROES

pew's Mother, Tom Platt's Mother.

COPYRIGHT, 1891-SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE reading could be compiled on the fa vorite sayings and stories of the mothers of remarkable men. There is lot of unwritten history here, which, if called forth, would show that mother stories and mother sayings have no only had a wonderful influence, but a most direct bearing on the lives of men who have risen from the ranks up to first place in the vocation they have attained so much eminence. Who has not heard in conversation with a successful man the words as applied to some good maxim: "My mother used to say..."

Although it is a fact that many cele brated characters in history never had any memory of their mothers at all, while the mothers of sons who have lived and died without even a tinge of smartness attached to their career were being constantly told some val-uable precept, it does not prove any-thing in particular, and it would be useless to waste a lot of wordy meta-physics upon the subject of this sym-nosium.

Will you kindly furnish in a few lines, over your signature, the best story or saying you recall most vividly as coming from your mother's lips.

HENRY CLEWS'S GUIDE TO PROSPERITY. My mother, from my earliest recol lection up to the present period of my existence. was always my ideal of a true and good woman, in fact, the nearest approach to a perfect one on this earth. To her I owe all that is in me which is worthy of imitation and transmission to my children. She taught me from infancy up many wise things and sayings. One of them I distinctly recollect, and I can now almost think that I hear her gentle but forcible voice, saying, "Now Henry, to bed, for remember, 'early to bed, early to rise, will make a man healthy, wealthy and wise." This oft repeated quotation was made to ring in my ears and was therefore forced indelibly upon my mind, and it is due to making it my guide through life that I owe my present good health, cheerful spirits and much of my business success. I recommend its adopme which is worthy of imitation and ness success. I recommend its ado tion to all young men starting out to make a career for themselves. My word for it, it is the best tonic yet discovered for building up the rising gen-eration to make successful men in all walks of life requiring enterprise and full of us, and as we grew apace, as they say over there "It was deeper into t' locaf and deeper into the clooath," while there was only a small wage to meet the large demand. So I mind how, when winter was coming on, and the snow began to fall and food and the snow began to fall and food and fuel were dear, she would six still, with a far-away look in her eyes of brooding trouble, and say, perhaps, "This is going to be a hard winter, bairns," while the tears ran down her sweet face. But when we began to whimper also, and especially at the dreadful thought that we should have no Christmas this year the times were no Christmas this year, the times were so hard, I mind how the look of brood Volley on veiley he thundered out from the throat of his gun, ing would pass away, and she would Like the hurr cane's sweep was the battle say never mind, we shall get along, natter h let us look poor and don't tell. Then contrive, but only earn faithful and true scanty weekly wares. Then we would win through the winter and never know what it was to want, while I still see mother going about the house with the new light in her eyes she had won by faith, and hear the brave words: "No matter, bairns, how poor we are, don't let us look poor and don't tell." The saying be-came a household word, and, I doubt not, still stays in the hearts of all her children, when the need to stand true to it and work out our own salvation in these things that touch the common life has passed away.

WISDOM AND POETRY FROM THE MOTHER OF EX-SENATOR PLATT. My mother died many years ago, but her example and precepts still live in my memory and heart as fresh as if it were but yesterday. Being of New twenty-five years he lived shunned and England parentage, the Life of Christ and the Wise Sayings of Ben Frank-lin furnished the themes for much of her early teachings. "Poor Richard's" tor, than her early teachings. "Poor Richard's" proverbs were impressed upon me early and late, and chief among them was that thrifty idea, "Take care of the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves." I have saved many pennies, but somehow or other the pounds have failed to verify the philosophy. She was very fond of books and flowers, spending all her spare time, by day, both winter and summer, in the cultivation of her tastes in this regard. I remember a favorite statement gard. I remember a favorite statement of hers, taken from the German, which is embodied in the following pretty Hearing Complaints.

My mother was a woman of broad ulture and a great reader. She was San Luis Obispo, one of the active intensely religious and believed in the fficacy of church attendance on the Sabbath, She did not care for money and never gave any advice in regard to it. Rich people did not impress her, but she was never tired of enthusiastibut she was never tired of enthusiastically speaking of the honors of life and of men who had become famous as statesmen, orators and authors. She pleaded so earnestly and urgently the duty of going to church that I am as uncomfortable now for the remainder of the week if absent from service at least once on Sunday, as I was when a boy. She valued education beyond all acquisitions, and her constant injunction was to get knowledge. Her often repeated remark was: "It requires little money to live and anybody who tries can earn it, but very few can win tries can earn it, but very few can win distinction. Strive for that."

WHAT OTHERS SAY. Gen. Russell A. Alger, who was seen at the Fifth-avenue Hotel a few minutes previous to his leaving for his utes previous to his leaving for his home in Detroit, said very feelingly: "It will be impossible for me to write anything for you at this time for the symposium. I have just had a great affliction in the loss of my daughter, and I can assure you when you speak to me about my mother, it is a very tender subject to me. The last time I saw her I was only 12 years old, and she bade me good-bye with the words: 'God' bless you, my boy, do right always.' The greatest regret of my life has ever been that I did not have the opportunity to make her as comfortopportunity to make her as comfortable as I would have liked."

A young poet in New York, whose devotion and loyalty to the memory of his mother is so strong that he will not permit any one in his presence to speak lightly of any woman, says his mother's favorite expression was, "Never under any circumstances do anything man," "Never under any circumstances do anything mean." Col. Robert G. Ingersoll was a little tot of only 2 years old when his mother passed away, and the Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, has been equally unfortunate in the loss of his mother.

If all the pleasant facts in connection with the compiling of this symposium could be printed it would make an interesting story in itself. It will not be irrelevant, hewever, to mention one incident.

AGAINST DR. BRIGGS.

Action of the Presbyterian General Assembly.

The Professor's Transfer to Union Seminary Disapproved.

The Result Reached After a Long, bu Harmonious Debate.

Proceedings of Other Religiou Bodles-Lutherans Not to Re-Vise Their Creed-Southern Presbyterlans.

By Telegraph to The Times.

DETROIT, May 29.—[By the Associated Press.] This morning's session of the Presbyterian General Assembly began with the usual prayer meeting. in the course of which the death of Judge Breckenridge was often alluded Debate on Dr. Briggs was resumed. Dr. Hathaway of Jersey City said he hoped Dr. Logan's amendment would be adopted.

After several others had expressed their views, Dr. Worcester of Chicago offered a substitute to the amondment of Dr. Logan and to the committee report. It provides that a committee of eight ministers and seven elders be appointed to confer with the directors of the seminary; that the directors be specially requested to reconsider their action in transferring Dr. Briggs; that they be requested that Dr. Briggs should not be allowed to perform the duties belonging to said chair for the ensuing year. Dr. Worcester then Istand not as a supporter of Dr. Briggs, but as an advocate of peace. I have hoped and prayed that our action might lead to unity, not bitterness, and make us strong for our great fight with evil. I believe there are many on both sides of the Briggs question who feel as I do, and long for some safe middle course. We have a right to do what I advise—to request the trustees of Union Theological Seminary to reconsider their action. This course will not render the position of the New York presbytery more difficult in the trial of Dr. Briggs.

The discussion of Dr. Worcester's

continued at the afternoon session. Dr. McKibben said:

I believe we are taking part in the greatest crisis the Presbyterian church has ever passed through, and the destion is whether this Assembly will ever find a justifiable occasion for expressing disapproval of a professor. If now we disapprove of Dr. Briggs and wait until an investigation has been gone through, and then, if Union Theological Seminary is satisfied, and the church is satisfied that, after the experience through which he has passed, he will be not only a sound but a safe preacher, we will allow them to elect him. They lose nothing by this disapproval on our part. As far as law is concerned, if it be said that this Assembly has, by its refusal to disapprove, allowed a man to teach, I ask you by what principle of consistency you can say to a young man who comes before a presbytery, "We will license you for holding what your professor, by authority of the power of the Presbyterian church, has been teaching." If thought these things were only Dr. Briggs's diosyncracies it would be a different thing, but they are the advance-guard of a great tide. Some memmay not take in as much of it as others, but it is going to overthrow the supremacy of "Thus saith the Lord," and I tell you vance-guard of a great tide. Some men may not take in as much of it as others, but it is going to overthrow the supremacy of "Thus saith the Lord;" and I tell you when I am dealing with the question, "What is needed to save me," I would rather have one "Thus saith the Lord" undisputed than all the scholarship the world contains. I believe in my soul that if Dr. Briggs is not in harmony with the Confession of Faith with regard to these matters, the adoption of this report will do more to bring him back than anything else; otherwise I believe that in five years some men will be apologizing for having asked this Assembly to waive this solemn power entrusted to it by Almighty God to protect the teachings in its theological seminaries. This report casts no shadow save that we do not feel that Briggs is the best man to have in a theological seminary.

Dr. Carlisle, Elder Junken of Philadelphia, Dr. Smith of Baltimore and others favored the report. Dr. Park-hurst of New York opposed Dr. Patnded, the directors would meet them in the spirit of the resolution. United States Civil Service Commissioner Lyman also favored Worcester's substitute.

After further debate a vote was taken on the substitute and it was rejected by an overwhelming majority. Dr. Logan was permitted to withdraw his amendment and then the final vote was taken, resulting as follows: For was taken, resulting as follows: For Dr. Patton's report, 440; against it, 59.

By Telegraph to The Times. PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—[By the Associated Press.] John Bardsley. late City Treasurer of Philadelphia, was arraigned in court today to answer the triple charges of misappropriating $39,000 city money, embezzlement of $400,000 and upward of State funds. and perjury in violating the oath of office by loaning city money out at interest.

The District Attorney said the books The District Attorney said the books of the Treasurer's office showed a balance in the Keystone Bank of $600,-000, while in fact there was only $400,-000 there. In the cash drawer of the Treasurer's desk were checks on the Keystone for $200,000. These Bardsley took to Bank Examiner Drew and asked to have them placed to his credit in the Keystone. A similar state of affairs was shown in regard to money belonging to the city.

Peoples' National and Farmers and Mechanics National banks, Mr. Alexander held a consultation with his client and decided that he should tell the names of the banks that paid him interest. Bardsley said that he had been paid interest by all the above named banks, except the Farmers and Mechanics.

Mechanics.

The District Attorney rested his case and said as he was unable to prove, today, the charge of perjury, he asked that it be continued until June 12. Bail was fixed at $10,000 on the charge of misappropriating city funds, $35,000 on the charge of embezzling State funds, and $5000 on the charge of perjury. It is not expected that Bardsley will be able to obtain bail.

Bardsley, talking with detectives, said: "I tell you, gentlemen, I have been in hell for the past six months. I thought things would come out all I thought things would come out all-right, but they did not and I am glad the thing is ended. President Marsh's action has been a great disappoint-ment to me. Trees from Root Cuttings.
[Farm and Fireside.]
Mr. Burbridge, Mr. Robinson and others, have called attention to the #### fact that in parts of France, Germany and Bohemia, North Silesia and Russia are found many sections where

rungs are each year becoming more general. In such neighborhoods a change to trees grown from root-cuttings would not be easy, for the reason that the material for root-cuttings is lacking, as with us. The inducement for a change of policy is less urgent with us, as the climate is more equable and the orchard troubles are trifling compared with ours.

If our people can only be convinced that trees grown from root-cuttings are best, we can soon have an abunddant stock of roots that will bring trees true to name. By the use of short roots and long scions we can cause the apple, pear, cherry, plum, prune and apricot to root from the scion in nursery, and when set in orchard the seedling part can be cut away. At Ames, Iowa, we now have many trees on their own roots, and we are now starting trees in this way. The cuttings can be made and treated in the common way adopted with the blackbarry and raspherry but with in the common way adopted with the blackberry and red raspberry; but with the orchard fruits the cuttings should be made four inches long and stuck like other cuttings, but with the top about three-fourths of an inch below

Raspberries and Strawberries.

With the ease with which either of affairs was shown in regard to money belonging to the city.

District Attorney Graham asked that Bardsley be held on the charge of misappropriating city funds, and the magistrate agreed. The State-funds matter was then taken up, and it was shown that Bardsley had loaned out State funds at interest to a number of bankers, etc.

Bardsley himself took the stand and said: "I did put money in the Keystone Bank, and will have to take what the law gives me. I got as high as 4 per cent. interest for the money. I deposited the money and took due-bills for it as is done every day, and when the bank failed I lost the money."

After it had been testified that Bardsley kept private accounts in the Seventh National, the Manufacturers National, Chestnut Street National, Peoples' National and Farmers and Machanies National had also happened.

To balance things leave only a foot or so in length at the top. The consequence will be that few eyes will start out into vigorous growth and give a good cane for next year's use, when a fair crop may be confidently expected. This rule holds good in transplanting other things. For example, the grape vine on replanting will often attempt a crop of fruit the first year, but it is much the best way to let their strength the first year be entirely expended in much the best way to let their strength the first year be entirely expended in the production of a vigorous growth. Hence, on planting, if the canes are long, cut them back to only a few eyes. If you are bound to have a long cane, train this horizontally and the eyes will be more apt to break uniformly, otherwise expect only the top of two or three to start.

Gooseberries and currants are also best with a portion of the wood cut.

Fertilizing Strawberries.

The Ohio Experimental Station tried everal different fertilizers on strawberries, the Crescent being chosen for the purpose, with analysis of the results. Sugar was found in the largest portion when 400 pounds to the acre of sulphate of potash was applied; and the smallest after 300 pounds of superphosphate. Nitrate of sods and muriate of potash gave about as much sugar as sulphate of potash. The most metallic acid was found when no fertilizer was applied. The fertilizer did not change the composition of the fruit, but only the quantity of the ingredients. No difference could be perceived in the taste and appearance. But the fruit ripened several days earlier after the super-phosphate than after the nitrate of sods, while sulphate of ammonia caused still later ripening. The color of the foliage was strongly affected. perries, the Crescent being chosen for denning & Co. advanced Bardsley specified that the began selling his stocks, and, the market being weak, his losses aggregated $95.846.

BUSINESS.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES.

LOS ANGELES, May 29, 1891.

Now that the season has arrived when the early potato crop of this section is beginning to be in demand for shipment to eastern points, the old complaint of high freight rates is frequently heard. Speaking on this subject today a well-known commission merchant said: "The trouble with these light rates is not so much that they these figh rates is not so much that they take the grower's profits, when he does make a shipment, as that they restrict the make a shipment, as that they restrict the lime, during which he can ship at all, to a lew weeks each year. We are beginning to send this season's potatoes to the East now. The freight is 90 cents per hundred pounds by the carload to Missouri River points. Now, in order to make a fair profit, we have to sell these potatoes in Kansas City, St. Louisor wherever they go, at $1.80 per one hundred pounds. The railroad takes just one-half of this. Then the middlement Lare their commission and the balance, say 80 cents, goes to the farmer. This will give him a fair profit, though none too much. But the trouble is that he is restricted in his shipments to five or six weeks at the close of spring and beginning of summer, when shipments to five or six weeks at the close of spring and beginning of summer, when the eastern market is so bare that he can get enough returns to pay the freight and still make a profit. If the freight rates were lower, say 50 cents per one nundred pounds, he could ship with profit during those months of the year when the eastern market is moderately supplied, but not bare enough to make the higher prices. What is said of potatoes is equally true of cabbages, onions and other farm products of this section. I amy judgment the lower rate would be far more profitable to the railroads as well as the farmers in the long run."

For eight years I was afflicted with a decase of the stomach that baffled the best doctors, and at least they told me that they didn't know what was the matter with me, and refused to give me any more med cine. Two years ago when I got so feeble that I could scarcely walk, Dr. Wong's medicine pit me in good health in a month's time.

A delicate child us my family had whooplag cough and nearly choked to death. Dr. Wong made a permanent cure with three doses of medicine.

BR. WONG has cured over 2000 people who were afflicted with nearly every form of the various diseases the human flesh is heir to.

Fully 97 per cent of those cures were made of wreeks that could not find relief in the other systems of medicine as practiced.

There is a very perceptible increase in travel on the surf line of the Southern California Railway since the fact is becoming generally known that a rate of one fare for the round trip from Los Angeles to San Diego is made on Saturdays and Sundays. Tickets are good up to and including the following Monday. Many people who have long desired to visit the beautiful Hotel del Coronado and San Diego's deep water fiarbor can now do so at nominal expense. Reclining chair cars are run on this line, and the trip is an exceedingly pleasant one. For over seventy miles the railway follows the coast with the ocean is full view. Tickets on sale at No. 129 North Spring street and Santa Fé depot.

UNITY CLUB MUSICALE.
St. Vincent's Hall was brilliantly illuman excellent musical programme in the "Craide Song." Miss Wilkerson payed a piano solo and also assisted Mrs. Austin in an instrumental duett. Dr. Jauch sang an exquisite ballad, "The Swiss Love Song," and Mr. Weisendanger sang a Bedouin love song, the promantic sentiment seeming to be specially required. to be specially prominent in the vocal selections, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Parsons sang a duet, and several other selections were rendered to the delight of the audi-

CHURCH SOCIAL. A large number of people gathered last evening in the parlors of the Congrega-tional church to enjoy an informal social. tional church to enjoy an informal social. Pleasant conversation, music and the dainty serving of tea, chocolate and wafers added to the social enjoyment of all present. Misses Biackman and Roberts gave a plano duet, Prof. Storrs a reading, and Paul Brown played a fine violin solo, his mother, Mrs. J. B. Brown, accompanying him on the plano. A male quartette, consisting of Messra, E. Averill, Frazer, Shepard and Sanborn, sang a pleasing selection, and the three Misses Bosbyshell played a trio very eleverly on the plano. Consider ble fun was created by the appearance of a giant and gintess accompanied by an incipient giant. These monstrous specimens of humanity excited the wonder of every one present.

Some Baking Powders Lose Their Strength Quickly.

For twenty-five years the Royal Baking Powder Company has refused to be controlled by the mania of its competitors-to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality or wholesomeness.

Some lower-cost brands are now being pushed on the market which, from being made of inferior materials, lose their strength quickly after the can is once opened. At the second or third baking there will be noticed a falling off in strength.

There is given in the United States Government report of baking powder tests the case of a sample which, tested when fresh, gave an average of 121/2 per cent. of leavening gas. The same sample, tested a few days after being opened, had lost one-third of its strength. A subsequent test showed it to contain but 31/2 per cent., or but three-fifths of its original leaver : - cas.

Royal Baking Powder will not deteriorate. It will retain its strength until usec. No other baking powder will. Government Chemist Mott states that the Royal is superior to other brands because of the perfectly pure cream of tartar used in it, and because of the method of its preparation and the proper proportion of its ingredients.

It is always the case that the consumer suffers in pocket, if not in health, by accepting any substitute for the Royal Baking Powder, especially when the substitute is offered on the ground that it is cheaper.

The Royal Baking Powder is the embodiment of all the excellence that it is possible to attain in an absolutely pure powder. It is always strictly reliable. It is not only more economical but will make more wholesome food.

ROYAL IS FOUND

DEMENTED CONDITION AT OJAI HOT SPRINGS.

He Says He Does Not Know How He Got Away from Los Angeles or Where He Has Been.

A. W. Royal has been located beyond any question of doubt at the Ojai Hot Springs, in Ventura county, and his wife is now probably with him, as she left for Ojai yesterday morning. She stated before she left that she intended to bring her return this afternoon or tomorrow.

When Mr. Wood returned from Newhall and reported that he could find no trace of inated last evening and within was an Royal, his wife placed the case in the hands animated throng of people who listened to of Detectives Insley and Smith, and they promptly located their man. Royal did stop off as Smith first stated, but the next day took the train and went to Ventura. where he caught the stage, and went over to the springs. Royal stated to the detective that he did not know how he left Los Angeles, or where he h d been. He also said that he knew nothing about any threat of arrest, or anything of that kind. He acted like a man demented, but registered at the hotel as A. W. Rogers.

The following letter was received at The Times office yesterday:

Olai Hot Springs. May 28—1To the Ed. where he caught the stage, and went over

Times office yesterday:

OJAI HOT SPRINGS, May 28 — [To the Editor of The Times.] Mr. A. W. Royal, of 841 Bellevue street, Los Angeles, is here, he did not seen to know what he was doing when he came here, but is feeling some better and says that he does not know how he got away from home, where he has been, or what he has been doing since. He seems anxous to get back to his family, and I have telegraphed them to that effect. His mind is in a had state and I thought it better that some one come after him.
